If you desire to sell or rent your farm or city property, list it with us. We can dispose of it for you.

We are also agents for some of the best and cheapest farming lands in northwest Texas, and make the trip there on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Arrange to go with us while you can get extremely low rates.

NEWTON & LEONARD.

DEATHS.

GEO. WEBER

died at his home on South Jefferson Saturday, Sept 8th, 1906, of dropsy, aged 65 years. He leaves besides his widow, six children: Mesdames Louis Seibert and Will Oster, Miss Georgia Weber, H. B. Weber, of Morgan county, Gus and Carl Weber. The funeral occurred from the residence Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. E. Abbot, after which the remains were laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery. D. D. Duggins, J. W. Bryant, L. E. Benedick, Herman Ludwig, C. A. Mauch and Jake Berg acted as pall bearers.

THOMAS AUDSLEY

one of Saline's most prominent stockmen, died at his home in the northern part of the county Saturday, Sept. 8, of typhoid fever, aged 50 years less 4 months. Mr. Audsley was born and raised in Saline and was much liked for his big-heartedness to his friends, as was shown in the recent Republican primaries, when he is said to have stopped his threshing engine at the busiest time in order that his men might vote for his friend.

Four children survive beside his widow—Amos, Hamner, Miss Pearl and Mrs. John Hanna, who all reside in the same neighborhood.

When five days old, Mr. Audsley's mother died and he was taken care of by Mrs. Sullivan and daughter, Mrs. W. A. S. Hyland, for four years, and the latter has always felt a deep motherly interest in him.

His brother, sister and two half-brothers came over from Carroll county with their families to attend the funeral, which was conducted at the beautiful country residence Sunday afternoon by Rev. Clemens after which the body was laid to rest in the Miami Baptist cemetery.

MRS. LYDIA CHASE

col., died at her home in West Marshall Monday morning after a long illness, aged about 65 years. She leaves a son, Todd, and two sisters to mourn her loss. The funeral was held at the North St. M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. Geo. Reed.

MRS. SALLY WHITE

col., was born on the old Gen. Smith farm near Napton in 1844 and died at her home in Napton, at 2 a. m. September 5, 1906. She joined the Zoar Baptist Church at Napton in 1863 and has lived a consistent Christian life until her death. She was married to

Wm. Osborne in 1861 who died in the Union army the same year after being married about six months. She next married Isaac White in 1876. She was the mother of ten children all of whom are dead but one, Isaac Jr., who with her husband is left to mourn her death. The funeral was conducted by Rev. C. R. White, of Arrow Rock, at the colored Baptist Church near Napton.

The Harvest Picnic

Saturday was a big day in Sweet Springs. The Sweet Springs and Sedalia bands commenced early to welcome the crowds that came in from all directions.

In the morning there was a splendid stock show at which many premiums were awarded. Afternoon, speaking took place at the grounds, but it was somewhat interfered with by a shower of rain. The afternoon speakers were U. S. Senator Wm. Warner and ex-Congressman C. W. Hamlin. At night Senator Wm. J. Stone and Congressman Welborn made speeches. A large number drove over from Marshall to take in the picnic, among whom were Abiel Leonard, J. W. Barnhill, Leonard Van-Dyke, Dr. M. T. Chastain, Chas. Chaffee, W. G. Durrett, Robt. Reynolds, Geo. D. Harris of Slater, Adam Swisher, J. V. Chase, W. R. Scott, R. E. L. Smith Everett and Nick Barnum and many others.

Successful Operation

Aug. Cook, a prominent farmer of Sweet Springs, had an operation performed in Kansas City several weeks ago that has brought him great relief. He was suffering greatly when Dr. Ringen suggested an operation for stone in the bladder and took him to Kansas City where two stones the size of walnuts were removed from the bladder and he is now doing finely, we are pleased to state.

Surprise Wedding

Miss Rose McGrath, the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath, was married to Allen Mahan, of Malta Bend in Kansas City last week. It was a surprise to all their friends, who wish them well.

Struck by Lightning

Last Saturday evening lightning struck Fred Koehs-meyer's barn just east of Blackburn and burnt it to the ground with contents.

Romantic Marriage

Clyde McBride and Miss Helen I. Rose have just announced that they were married on Aug. 3rd, 1905, having kept the marriage a secret.

Mr. McBride is the son of U. A. McBride and is at present a reporter on the Kansas City World. At the time of his marriage he was local editor of the Daily Index. He is a bright, intelligent young man and no one can blame him for trying hard to get the lady of his choice.

Miss Rose is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rose and is a young lady of accomplishments and many attractive traits.

The young couple were married at Galena, Kansas, on the day mentioned. Mr. McBride made all the arrangements and was met there by Miss Rose, who was supposed to be visiting friends at Butler, Mo., by her parents. There was opposition to the marriage, but this seems to have been overcome, and all is well. The young couple will reside in Kansas City.

Crowded Out

Circumstances conspired against us yesterday and we were compelled to leave out many very important items which will appear next week.

Among our Subscribers

G. W. Madison, Geo. Eberly and Sam McClain renewed from Slater last week. W. G. Fowler, of east of there, was among the new subscribers that day.

L. E. Merkins, the Marshall concrete man, believes in starting the week right, and so handed us a dollar the first thing for renewal.

Handly & Son and R. P. White renewed and A. C. Conway and W. B. Elgin were new subscribers from Nelson Friday.

Louis Leimkuhler, a prominent farmer of East Saline called in Saturday to renew. Mr. Leimkuhler has just been appointed administrator of his father, Charles', estate.

Judge Samuel Davis Monday handed us his dollar for renewal. The Judge has always acted fairly and generously towards the Republican and we can't help having a warm spot for him.

J. M. Harris, of Douglas, Kansas, is a new subscriber through the courtesy of his father, D. M. Harris, of Elmwood.

Among our new subscribers at Sweet Springs Saturday were: Walter Hall, Dr. J. H. Owens, Christ Johns, John W. Vogelsmeyer, Monroe Keeth, A. P. Reager, and Gus J. Sylvester. Louis Leimkuhler, Jas. Bodenheimer, Ed Shannon and John H. McGuire handed us their renewals.

John H. Sellmeyer, of West Glasgow, ordered the Republican Tuesday. He is one of the wealthy farmers of that section of Saline.

Robt. King, who was up from near Little Rock Tuesday, called in to hand us a dollar for another year's news.

W. G. Hindman, of near Napton, was a substantial caller yesterday. He has just recovered from a severe sick spell. As he is getting old, his visits to Marshall are very rare, but we hope he may be spared to come often yet.

Finds Possessions Gone

J. A. Campbell, an old and respected citizen of the Miami bottoms, came over to Marshall Tuesday to look up the records on his farm. He was shocked to find himself turned out into the world without any claim on the nice farm and home which he considered as his own. He came into possession of the place he resides on through his wife who inherited it from her grandfather, Geo. Rider, and he was under the impression that he had a life interest, but owing to a suit filed recently it became necessary to look into matters more carefully and he then found that he was simply a guardian for the children, who are all of age now except one.

The land at one time was worth but very little, but through Mr. Campbell's industry and improvements he made has become quite valuable. Monday the circuit court will decide what claims Mr. Campbell is entitled to, and after this has been decided, Mr. Campbell says, he will go out to get a fresh start, and although 56 years old, he does not think that is too old to make a living for himself.

May do You Good

If you have found it difficult to attend church or neglected it because of indifference and have become careless on this all-important subject, it will undoubtedly do you good to attend a good revival. The First M. E. Church begins its meetings Sunday evening. Good preaching and singing. Come out.

LOCALS.

Circuit Court convenes next Monday.

Harry Herring came down from Kansas City Saturday evening.

Ringling Bros. circus will be in Marshall on Saturday, Sept. 22nd.

A. C. Garnett, a former Saline citizen, died at Pueblo, Colo., Tuesday.

Frank Leimkuhler, of near Little Rock, was a Marshall visitor Saturday.

O. W. Johnston spent Monday in Kansas City buying his Christmas toys.

Miss Dean Robertson, the popular Slater milliner, was a Marshall visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jacoby, of near Herndon, have a new son, who arrived last Saturday.

Clell Harrison has erected a fruit evaporator at his place on Jefferson and the C. & A. tracks.

Mrs. Clara Mills, of Napton, is visiting her uncle, R. M. Fowler, here a few days this week.

H. M. Dawes of New York, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. E. F. Dawes, at Norton the past week.

Geo. Scott, the hustling editor of the Higginsville Advance, made our office a pleasant call Tuesday.

Rev. Wm. Thomas and wife, col., of near Salt Springs, were in Marshall on legal business Tuesday.

Christ Zimmerman and son, C. H., of Hardeman, passed through Marshall yesterday for Texas to look at the country.

The Mo. State Bee Keepers Association will meet in Marshall on Oct. 2nd and 3rd. We will give a lengthy notice next week.

Our Napton papers were last week sent to Arrow Rock by mistake. We hope our Napton readers will overlook our mistake.

Roy Burgard this week purchased the Shantz & Vesser, barber shop, but no changes will be made in the working face for a while.

Rich Keith rented his farm at Herndon for a year to Chas. Thomas, of the same place, with the option of buying before next March.

W. H. Segesser went to Boonville to meet his wife Friday. They will board for a while, but expect to make this their home in future. We welcome them to Marshall.

Wm. Bridges, of south Lafayette, took a shot at a burglar in his room Monday morning about 3 o'clock but unfortunately his aim was bad and the burglar made his escape.

The Democratic Congressional campaign will be opened by speeches in Marshall next Monday. It would be well to keep an eye on the court house roof and see the enthusiasm boil over!

Mrs. John Hyde, col., of east Marshall, was thrown from her buggy on Odell Ave. Friday when her horse ran away. She was not badly hurt and no damage resulted to the buggy.

E. Heisler, of west of Marshall, who sold his farm last spring, is looking for another farm. He spent Saturday in the Malta Bend neighborhood, but failed to find any farms for sale.

John Thomas, of Nelson, is nursing a broken forefinger. While hauling coal another man dropped a big chunk on his hand and he fortunately got off with only a badly broken finger.

MRS. O. D. ROBINSON.
Every Woman in America Is Interested in This Woman's Experience.

HER HEALTH DESTROYED BY PELVIC CATARRH.

"Peruna has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me."—Mrs. O. D. Robinson.

Mrs. O. D. Robinson, 45 St. Felix St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I have taken Peruna and it did me more good than all my two years' treatment by special physicians."

"I can really say that I feel like another person. No more swollen feet and limbs. No more bloating of the abdomen. No more shortness of breath. No more stuff and sore joints. You have no idea what your treatment has done for me. It has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me."

"O, such a blessing I have received through your kindness. Doctor, and the assistance of the medicine which you so kindly prescribed. I am able to work since I began your treatment, but before I was not able to help myself, much less do any work. All praise is due to Dr. Hartman and his treatment."

J. A. Vaughn came over from his home near Miami Monday after several tons of ice. Wonder if he has taken to treating the girls to ice cream? We expect him back soon after a license if that is the case.

Everette Burke, formerly of this county, died at Pueblo, Col., on Sept. 6th, of consumption. Mr. Burke was a brother of Mrs. E. E. Barnett and with his wife visited relatives here a year ago, but soon after took pneumonia which developed into consumption.

J. T. Curry, formerly of Creteher, is now located at Sedalia where he is contracting carpenter work. We met him in Higginsville Saturday and he said he misses the Republican, so we will see that he gets it—politics and all, even if it should make a Republican out of him.

The many friends of John W. Blackburn were pleased to see him out again Saturday. He attended the Harvest Picnic at Sweet Springs. He said he won't be content to die till after he has served a term as probate judge of Saline county, for which office he is the Republican nominee. We hope he may have the opportunity to serve often.

Caseltolt-Fowler

A quiet wedding occurred at the home Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fowler north of Marshall on Thursday of last week when their daughter, Miss Cora, was married to Clifford Casebolt, of Miami, Rev. Cobb officiating. They will reside a mile east of Miami.

New School Building

A large number of Marshall citizens have petitioned the school board for a special election to consider the erection of another school building, the capacity of the present buildings being overtaxed.
